

FALL QUARTER EXAMINATION SCHEDULE: 2023

This examination schedule minimizes but does not completely eliminate the possibility of examination conflicts. When examination conflicts occur, students should consult the office of the dean of the school in which they are enrolled.

Students are required to take the scheduled final examination at the appointed time and place in order to secure credit. Exceptions to the examination schedule are granted only by the office of the dean of the school in which students are enrolled and under the following circumstances: a death in the immediate family; a documented medical emergency demanding immediate attention; an examination schedule covering courses totaling MORE THAN 12 units or MORE THAN 3 examinations during one final examination day.
